Hello M,

As you already know from my website, I work with beings in the non-physical, the archangels, ascended masters, angels, spirit guides, helpers and in particular channel information through my own guide who calls herself Alleyna.

I have no control over the responses I receive and sometimes the angel's terminology can initially be unusual and it can sometimes take a bit of getting used to.

I will connect to your energiness, through my own guide and see what we can about you. I type as I get the information and it comes as the angels choose to tell it.

As stated, I'm just going to start typing now... the rest of this reading will be directly from the angels.

... Lots of angelic love to you ... Jill Harrison xxx

How your past affects your present – Beloved daughter of light, we are pleased you seek our guidance at this time, Archangel Chamuel is my name and I bring you the support you need.

We feel it is important to always look to the past and see how our actions have brought us to the present. The experiences you have chosen in this lifetime are the ingredients to how you portray who and what you are. Your main challenge is when you find yourself dealing with change. M**, we ask you to learn to be more discriminative in your judgements, you have strong analytical skills and these skills should be used for your personal development. Learn to give yourself credit when you've achieved a goal or assisted someone else. In your relationships, you must learn not to be so critical of others. Learn to set limits so that you aren't taken for granted. There is no such thing as being perfect. Human is, as human does, each action brings into place, that which is required at the time. Sometimes, we may need to learn and experience things harshly for the lesson to hit home and at other times, we can breeze through experiences learning quickly. Always remember that your true goal in life is the actual journey, not the end result.

Once you reach 35 your struggle for personal success will be over, you're nearing completion of your goals, success and fulfilment will be yours for the taking. We know you feel as though you'll never achieve your goals, but rest assured, you are moving step by step to uncovering your dreams. Think of your current situation as the intermediary stage.

Each aspect of your life brings new and stronger self awareness. The only block that inhibits your transitions quicker and easier, is down to past bonds. Your parents were strong souls, highly independent and we ask that you do not judge yourself by their life's journey but take time to experience and relish your own journey. As you mature it becomes essential to control inappropriate emotional reactions which relate back to frustration regarding your interpretation of parental conflict, you will always have a very strong emotional nature, and feel an enormous pull from the past. Your past is what has helped you to have well-developed instincts.

Advice for the Present –

Whether you would prefer to have a low profile or not, you will often dominate your surroundings through the force of your personality. Professionally you strive to do your very best, for we know that success is a matter of honour for you. Creative work and self-expression must be an important element in your professional life if you wish to feel complete fulfilment. You stand on your pride too much; so it is important that you work on your self-confidence, and shyness in relation to others, as this can hinder your progress, but the older you get, the better you will be able to overcome your fears.

A new opportunity is waiting for you, as you're about to be recognised for the work that you've done, when this happens, honour your success with a treat, perhaps a trip to a weekend spa, would help you connect with your spiritual side a little more. M**, you really do possess the ability to succeed against all opposition. Face up to your life, start to take a stand and assert your point of view. Look at incorporating your skills, self-employment would be good for you, as you'd really be able to utilise your creative abilities.

Where your finances are concerned, think balance, adaptability and equilibrium, ensure that you balance the physical world with the spiritual world. We know that at the moment money goes out as fast as it comes in, but be pleased for now that the bills are being paid and things are moving forward. Always remember that you have the innate ability to deal with whatever life brings. Draw on your energy to move through and overcome your challenges. By cultivating inner fortitude, you will attract the contacts and opportunities you need. Forge ahead with your career plans, your patience and endurance will reap rewards.

Future insights.

Remember M** to keep the wishes and dreams of your childhood alive. Use those memories in your creative work. Someone or something from your past will provide you with the inspiration and energy you need. Do not feel that your best years are behind you, for if you do, that will become your reality. By looking to the past, you may miss the opportunities that surround you. Always think balance and harmony, you must show confidence and belief in your goals, begin with a gesture that illustrates your belief, then work to refine the belief itself. What you do today will reach far into your future. You're on the right path, good fortune will look kindly on you, once you open yourself to the possibilities that everything will work out better than you expected. You are on the way to attaining your highest potential.

Learn to let go of what no longer serves your best interests, if you have areas in your life that prove disappointing or unproductive, give up and move on. Learn to acknowledge your pain, examine it, work through it and then let it go and move on.

Give serious attention to an unexpected opportunity to trade up to a new home. A new project will bring you the opportunity to increase your financial base significantly. In conflicts between heart and head, listen to your heart, you will know if it feels right to progress further.

You possess many talents, always be positive about yourself, and remember you're a very creative soul; you would do well if you looked to areas such as writing, musician, actor, singer, doctor, teacher or lawyer.

Our final guidance M** is trust your intuition, set up your own business, look for an innovative individual to help you and begin to bank on your own creativity.

Experience the world as an echo of your own thoughts and actions, the financial darkness you've been experiencing is about to clear, we will do our best to help you manifest an unexpected windfall to tide you over. Look to gaining professional contacts, complete existing projects so you may prepare yourself for new undertakings. Your challenges lie in making newer and better deals, so guard against materialism and try not to waste your energies in nitpicky details. Maintain balance and approach your renewed prosperity with a sense of fun and playfulness.

By October you will be able to seize the initiative and take advantage of new opportunities. November will bring you completion, but perhaps not in the way you expected, your dream career will be in your hands, this will satisfy and fulfil you.

Look around you will find a property that is on or very close to water, it is meant for you. When you're not block emotionally M**, prosperity enters you life continually, remember this and do not be afraid to show the world who and what you are, for within you lies many possibilities, your life's journey is to unwrap and discover each special gift you have.

When you look at people, see them as rough diamonds, each experience they have, will knock and shape that diamond, until eventually some are beautiful priceless objects so their inner beauty and light can be seen... whilst sadly others do not see the beauty that lies within themselves.

Let your diamond shine forth
Blessed be
Chamuel
